Obituary

Christopher Haydn Walters, 69, of Ijamsville died Friday, October 1, 2021, at his home surrounded by his loving family. He was the husband of Susan G. Walters for nearly 43 years.

Born July 10, 1952, in Richmond, Virginia, he was the son of the late Leonard Moore Walters and Mary Jo (Oslin) Walters.

Chris graduated from William and Mary College with a bachelor's degree in business in 1974, and received his MBA from George Washington University in 1981.

He started his career as an information technology programmer with the FBI where he met his future wife, Sue. He continued working in the field as a programmer analyst until retiring as Vice President Information Technology in 2013.

Chris was a member of St. Ignatius Catholic Church in Ijamsville, MD. For many years, he sang in the church choir and was active with the music ministry. An avid musician, Chris was a vocalist and guitarist in Electric Tooth and Rocking Horse, two college rock bands.

He loved camping, dinners out with family, trips to the beach, his dogs, and was an avid Washington Football Team and Baltimore Orioles fan. Above all, he loved spending time with his family, especially his grandchildren.

Chris was loved by all and will be greatly missed.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by four children: Kate Mills and husband, Sam; Andy Walters and wife, Phuong; Mary Walters and fiancé, Michael Houck; and Tom Walters; five grandchildren, Anna, Mikey and Ryan Mills, and Kamea and Teddy Walters; brother, Pete Walters and wife, Carol; sister-in-law, Motts Walters; many nieces and nephews; and his beloved black lab, Barkis.

He was predeceased by two brothers, Steve and Tim Walters.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests a contribution in Christopher's name to either the St. Ignatius Building Fund, or to the charity of your choice.
